Klippenstein, Maria

Faspa: Recipes, Stories, and Traditions from the Mennonite Table (2019)

This book explores Mennonite history, religion, culinary traditions, and ways of life through the lens of the beloved Mennonite tradition of faspa. $38.00

Klassen, Sarah

The Russian Daughter (2022)

This novel follows a young Mennonite couple's decision to build an unconventional family of their own against the backdrop of the final days of the Russian Czarist Empire. This is Klassen's second novel and a worthy successor to The Wittenbergs (2013), which won the 2013 Margaret McWilliams Award for Popular History.
